

Our Philosophy

Caminos Princeton is a cultural immersion program that fosters meaningful connections with the Ecuadorian community. By practicing Spanish in authentic settings, students learn and grow beyond the classroom, engaging with local traditions, customs, and daily life to deepen their understanding of another culture. Through this immersion, students explore both the similarities and differences between their own backgrounds and those of the Ecuadorian people. This experience enhances language skills, broadens perspectives, and fosters open-mindedness and empathy, preparing students to become true global citizens.
